Instruction:	Hello Tim, Please proceed with additional tiling works associated with the installation of the new cooker hood as quoted. In order to fit this cooker hood and to make the necessary work to make the rear wall look presentable we will need to remove all the times behind and around the cooker hood and replace them. For ease and aesthetics we will use square tiles in plain white rather than trying to match the brick like ones as this has been done here in the past. Additional work - £499 + VAT Materials - tiles - £78.36 + VAT With regards, Annabel
